Jesus answered,
‘It is written: “Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.”’

Matthew 4:4

BREAD

Welcome to our 2024 BREAD Bible reading plan. This year we created a little more space in the month of January to examine our lives and schedules so that being with Jesus is increasingly a priority. Our new reading plan takes you through the whole Bible in 11 months with daily readings of the Old and New Testament as well as either a piece of wisdom literature or a Psalm. A little quirk this year is that we're scheduled to read Psalm 119 at the beginning, middle and end of the plan. These particular writings marvel at how God reveals himself to us by and in his Word and therefore have felt it fitting to keep reading them as a reminder of the significance of allowing his voice to shape our story.

That being said, we don't believe there's a single pattern or way to read the Bible. What's on offer here is merely an invitation, a map and a guide to help you to take in, across the next 11 months, the full plethora of God's chosen words to humanity. To be clear, there is not a single more important set of words for you to read or hear this year!

Our sense, as we take further strides into 2024, is that God is calling his people into greater levels of consecration and holiness. As grand and out of reach as that may seem, when we consider what that would look like in our lives, we find ourselves agreeing that the simple act of daily Bible reading is one of the means by which "we are being renewed day by day." (2 Corinthians 4:16). We're inspired by the simple act of Mary, who chose the spiritual over the physical, the soul over the body, and the presence of Jesus over any other activity (Luke 10:38-42). We're so glad you're making this commitment with us and pray with you that this plan acts as a catalyst for more of Jesus in your life, in the life of our church and the life of this city as we journey together through these sacred texts.

Pastor Jacob Crolla & Rebekah Smikle

BREAD, when used as an acronym, can be a helpful way to cultivate and curate your time and interaction as you read. By applying something fixed to your time of reading it elevates the intentionality behind what you're doing; spending time in dialogue with God and allowing him to form you into Christlikeness. Why not try it and use our journal entry (overleaf) as a guide? Be reminded, what we seek is not simply information, or even motivation, but communion and union with God.

Be still

Find a place where you can encounter God, ask him to fill the space, and then take a minute in stillness. Focus on slowing your breath and calming your mind. Fix your eyes on Jesus and invite the Holy Spirit to guide your time.

Read

Read through the passages for the day. Look for particular verses or themes that stand out, grab your attention, or interest you. Write them down or pray them out.

Encounter

Begin to meditate on it. What comes to mind and how does it make you feel? What do you think God is trying to reveal to you? Allow him to speak to your heart and mind and write a short reflection on what you're hearing.

Apply

Turn your focus outwards and be reminded of the missional reality of your life. Think about how you might apply the truth you're hearing. Write down or share with someone one thing you're going to try and live out.

Devote

Close by saying or writing a simple prayer of devotion to God. Ask God to fill you afresh and commit your day to him.
